Successful Crop Walk!

Many thanks to all who participated in the Crop Walk and to those who donated. As of October 7, we have received $10,037.23!

Your contributions will SAVE LIVES and contribute to self-sufficiency for those experiencing hunger and extreme poverty in Danville and around the world.

If you would like to contribute, make check out to Mount Vernon UMC, and put "Crop Walk" on the memo line.

NOTICE: Financial Reports are placed on the table outside of the office for your information. Any questions should be directed to Don Haymore, Joyce Obstler or Pastor Penny. Thank you to the Finance team for their continued work for our church.

Work on the new playground is underway. Out with the old equipment, and the excavating has begun. So exciting.

Thank you to everyone for your patience and your enthusiasm about this expansion.

Good things are happening.

Progress indeed.... the children have been so excited by the equipment.

We are even getting two additional parking spaces at the Fellowship Entrance!
